

Elks Campout 2019

August 2-4, 2019

4th Annual Elks Campout
Hole in the Wall Place, Starr Valley, Elko County, Nevada

Hosted by: Great Basin Elks Lodge #1472

What: A weekend in Starr Valley at the Hole in the Wall Place. Enjoy camping, hiking, and sight-seeing. Stay in your RV (no hook-ups), or bring a tent. This is an historic ranch owned by a local family who graciously offered its use due to the tragic burning of Lamoille Canyon.

Where: Hole in the Wall Place, Starr Valley, Nevada (approx. 30 miles east of Elko.)

Who: All Nevada Elks and guests. You must register and pre-pay. Elk membership not required for guests.

Amenities: Bathrooms (portable blue huts); campfire area; lodge kitchen tent; hiking; creek; scenic views; Best People on Earth.

Mornings: Coffee, juice, assorted pastries from 7:00 – 9:00 AM. Free to all attendees.

Friday & Saturday Nights: Margarita Bar scholarship fundraiser, $5 / drink, 4:00 – 6:00 PM, hosted by Great Basin Elks Scholarship Committee. Bring your own hors d'oeuvres to share. We will have grills set up Friday night for "cook your own dinner."

Saturday Night: Dinner hosted by Great Basin Elks. $15 / person, 6:00 – 8:00 PM. Must pre-register for dinner. Drawing held after dinner- tickets available on site--followed by group campfire and eleven o'clock toast.

To register, complete attached form and remit payment to:
Great Basin Elks #1472, PO Box 657, Elko, NV 89803